

Vol 104 p 116, 125 (Feb. J. 184-) (100 C.-) Was Moses Bill of Complaint against an attempt was being made, at opening a Township Road, laid out by the Trustees of Mill Creek Tp. in 1817 but which Road from that time till now (22 years) "never has been used or found no attempt to be made" to work beginning, at or near the house of Buckard Moore, on the County Road, leading from Anderson State Road to McHenry Ford, on Mill Creek, thence down Commons Road to said creek, thence on the old Road to Walker Mills, where it intersects the afore said Anderson State Road Defendant from Town Record that the Road was immediately opened, and has been in use ever since From T. Records said Road, laid out, R. wide beginning on N. side of State Road near Walker Mills on Mill Creek - ending at Buckard Moore in the Tp.
 Road that leads down to Mill Creek near McHenry Ford being 2 miles + 18 chains
